A CELEBRATION OF REGIONAL EXCELLENCE

“The tech sector moves fast, so nights like the Tech South West Awards matter. They remind us to pause, reflect on what we’ve achieved, and celebrate the brilliant people creating real impact across our region.

Last year’s ceremony brought together innovators, founders, engineers, creatives and leaders who are proving every day that game-changing technology doesn’t need a Silicon Valley postcode.

At the start of 2025, I travelled across the region speaking with founders and leadership teams about the challenges they’re facing – investment, regulation, talent, stronger pipelines, customer acquisition. Everything we do at Tech South West is shaped by those conversations. Through Growth Forge, our Funding and Finance Programme, our Social Value work and our ClimateTech strategy, we’re committed to supporting this ecosystem at every stage.

The Awards are a vital part of that mission. They shine a light on the ingenuity, resilience and ambition that define the South West. They help us retain and attract talent, inspire the next generation, and showcase the region as a destination for innovation and investment. Most importantly, they celebrate the people and organisations building momentum, opportunity and solutions for the future.”

Being headline sponsor of the 2025 Tech South West Awards was a powerful way for Bishop Fleming to champion the sector we're proud to be the number one choice of accountants for. The event deepened our relationships with the region's most innovative tech businesses and reinforced our commitment to supporting them at every stage of their growth.

It was a fantastic opportunity to celebrate the talent and ambition driving the South West's thriving tech ecosystem. We can't to do it all over again in 2026!
